SUBJECT INDEX TO VOLUME LIX

ABDOMEN incision, Abdominal incision in lesions of the rectum and rectosigmoid as related to the colostomy, 194; defects in wall of, Repair of recurrent and difficult hernias and other large defects of the abdominal wall employing the iliotibial tract of fascia lata as a pedicled flap, 766
Abnormalities, Mesentericoparietal hernia, duodenal hernias of Treitz, 165; of palate, The Dieffenbach-Warren operation for closure of the congenitally cleft palate, 309
Acriflavine, Studies on endobronchial occlusion, 501
Adamantine tumors, of the jaws, 876
Adams, Charles, 947
Aeration, The effects of carbon dioxide hyperventilation on, of lungs in patients after operation, 734
Air embolism, Anatomical and experimental observations on, 569
American College of Surgeons—
  Antivivisection, Health benefits from animal experimentation, 838; The importance and value to scientific medicine of animal experimentation, 952
  Clinical Congress, Preliminary program for 1934 Boston meeting, 132, 259, 549, 690
  Prepayment plan for medical and hospital service, ed. 945
  Report of the medical service board, 129
Amniotic fluid concentrate, Pre-operative preparation of the peritoneum in surgery of the large intestine, 610
Ampulla of Vater, The symptom-complex of complete external pancreatic fistula; report of a case, 590
Amylase, The value of estimations of the, of the blood in the diagnosis of suspected pancreatic disease, an experimental study and review of the literature, 598; Blood, in experimental pancreatitis, 756
Anæsthesia, spinal, in fact and fancy, 94; Obstetrical analgesia and, ed. 112; Modern, ed. 943
Anal canal, Diothane in surgery of the, a clinical survey of 100 cases, 820
Analgesia, Obstetrical, and anæsthesia, ed. 112
Animal experimentation, Health benefits from, 838; The importance and value to scientific medicine of, 952
Antiseptics, The problems involved in the treatment of compound fractures, 354
Antivivisection, The importance and value to scientific medicine of animal experimentation, 952
Anus, Pectenosis and minor maladies of the anal region, 806
Appendectomy, mortality of, Some remarks on the operative procedures for, 529
Appendicitis mortality of, A lowered mortality in acute, and the basis therefor, 189; Acute, a study of the correlation between the time of operation, the pathology, and the mortality, 738; Subphrenic abscess in children, 789
Appendix, A lowered mortality in acute, and the basis therefor, 189; Argentaffine tumors of the terminal ileum, a cause of intestinal obstruction, 469; Some remarks on the operative procedures for appendicitis, 529; Acute appendicitis, correlation between the time of operation, the pathology, and the mortality, 738
Argentaffine tumors, of the terminal ileum, a cause of intestinal obstruction, 469
Arm, Acute rapidly spreading infections following trivial injuries of the hand, 277
Artery, obstruction of, I. Simultaneous vein ligation, an experimental study of the effect of ligation of the concomitant vein on the incidence of gangrene following arterial obstruction, 496
Atelectasis, Studies on endobronchial occlusion, 501
Avertin, Modern anæsthesia, ed. 943

BACTERIOLOGY, Adequate bacteriological service for a surgical department, 358
Bacteriological service, Adequate, for a surgical department, 358
Bile duct, Drainage of the common, for gall stones, 781
Biopsy, Aspiration, 578
Bladder, A simple method of performing external perineal urethrotomy, a report of its value after fifteen years, 100; calculi, Urinary calculi associated with parathyroid disease, 210
Blind loops of intestines, Experimental chronic intestinal obstruction from, 726
Blood, examination of, The present status of, in the diagnosis of surgical infections, with a study of twenty-seven indices of infection reported in the literature, 48; hypercalcæmia, Irradiation of the parathyroids in generalized osteitis fibrosa cystica, report of a case, 81; Subtotal resection of the pancreas for hypoglycæmia, 474; examination, The toxæmias of pregnancy, 678; white cells in pregnancy, The lipid composition of white blood cells in women during pregnancy, lactation, and the puerperium, 744; ferments in, Blood amylase in experimental pancreatitis, 756
Blood amylase, The value of estimations of the, in the diagnosis of suspected pancreatic disease, an experimental study and review of the literature, 598
Blood chemistry, Experimental chronic intestinal obstruction from blind loops, 726
Blood vessels, of femur, Fractures of neck of femur, dislocations of hip, and obscure vascular disturbances producing aseptic necrosis of head of femur, 415; Passive vascular exercise in the treatment of peripheral circulatory disease, 480; I. Simultaneous vein ligation, an experimental study of the effect of ligation of the concomitant vein on the incidence of gangrene following arterial obstruction, 496; surgery of, The mechanism of death in massive pulmonary embolism, with comments on the Trendelenburg operation, 513; changes in, Anatomical and experimental observations on air embolism, 569; diseases of, Vascular disease of the lower extremities, a review of amputation criteria, 650; The treatment of varicose veins, anatomical considerations of ligation of the great saphenous vein, 916
Bone, Acute osteomyelitis, a clinical and experimental study, 25; long, Irradiation of the parathyroids in generalized osteitis fibrosa cystica, report of a case, 81; The behavior of transplanted, a clinical consideration, 149; long, fractures of, The problems involved in the treatment of compound fractures, 354; Interposition of os purum in osteosynthesis after osteotomy, resections of bones and joints, 638; regeneration of, Experimental, using lime salts and autogenous grafts as sources of available calcium, 867
Bone transplants, Experimental bone regeneration, using lime salts and autogenous grafts as sources of available calcium, 867

Brain, Hydatid disease of the, 321
Breast, Gelatinous carcinoma of the, 841
Bronchia, Studies on endobronchial occlusion, 501
Buerger's disease, Vascular disease of the lower extremities, a review of amputation criteria, 650
Bursæ, Tumors of the tendon sheaths, their close biological relationship to tumors of the joints and, 441

CANCER, of colon, notes on its surgical treatment, 410
Carbon dioxide, The effects of, hyperventilation on the aeration of the lungs in patients after operation, 734
Carcinoma, diagnosis, The picture of very early, of the uterine cervix, 1
Catgut, A method for determining the time of, digestion in vitro, 161; The sterility of surgical, sutures, with particular reference to foreign made, 899
Cheeks, Dental prosthesis in relation to facial reparative surgery, 70
Chemical sterilization of catgut, The sterility of surgical catgut sutures, with particular reference to foreign made catgut, 899
Children, diseases of, Subphrenic abscess in children, 789
Cholecystitis, Bacteriology of, the virulence and spore formation of clostridium welchii, 752
Chromaffin cell tumor, Clinical manifestations of the, arising from the suprarenal medulla, suprarenal sympathetic syndrome, 9
Circumcision, Operation for phimosis, 904
Cleft palate, Dental prosthesis in relation to facial reparative surgery, 70; The Dieffenbach-Warren operation for closure of the congenitally cleft palate, 309
Clostridium welchii, Bacteriology of cholecystitis, the virulence and spore formation of, 752
Colon, Cancer of the, notes on its surgical treatment, 410; Carcinoma of the, 762
Common duct, Exploration of the, in gall-stone surgery, 906
Condyle, lateral of tibia, Fractures of the, classification, pathology, and treatment, 461
Cyclopropane, Modern anæsthesia, ed. 943
Cysticocholedochostomy, Drainage of the common bile duct for gall stones, 781

DAVIS, Nathan Smith, Northwestern University Medical School, 544
Death, mechanism of, The, in massive pulmonary embolism, with comments on the Trendelenburg operation, 513
Dental prosthesis, in relation to facial reparative surgery, 70
Dentigerous cysts, Adamantine tumors of the jaws, 876
Diagnosis, The present status of blood examination in the, of surgical infections, with a study of twenty-seven indices of infection which have reported in the literature, 48
Dial-urethane, for obstetrical analgesia, 622
Diaphragm, Subphrenic abscess in children, 789
Diastase, Blood amylase content in experimental pancreatitis, 756
Diothane, in surgery of the anal canal; a clinical survey of one hundred cases, 820
Disease, Graves', Thyroid crisis, 41; peripheral circulatory, Passive vascular exercise in the treatment of, 480
Duodenum, Mesentericoparietal hernia, duodenal hernias of Treitz, 165; Peptic ulcer of Meckel's diverticulum, a report of two cases and a review of the literature, 198; Gastric resection for peptic ulcer, technique, 337; ulcer of, The present status of the surgical treatment of peptic ulcer, 350
